"Life's but a walking shadow, a poor player. That struts and frets his hour upon the stage, and then is heard no more." And collapses over and dies. Watching from nearby Hermione is so impressed and happy for him she is almost crying tears of joy.

Heady and sardonic, with an unpredictable cast of lovers, liars, killers, and clowns, Walking Shadow entertains even as it ponders the instability of identities. It is a thoroughly engrossing performance by a classic talent.
